The Beaverton Police Department sadly announces the passing away of K-9 Wyatt Earp on Friday July 16th. Wyatt Earp joined the Beaverton Police Department in 1994 when he was eight-weeks old. During his career with the Beaverton Police Department, Wyatt Earp and Officer Ed Gosse teamed up to handle over 2702 calls for service and assisted twenty-three different agencies. Wyatt helped to recover $7,610 worth of property and evidence and directly or indirectly apprehended over 112 suspects.

Chief David G. Bishop commented: "Throughout his career, Wyatt worked hard to protect the citizens of Beaverton and his loss will always be felt, both here at the department and within the community".
